Editor's Note:

We have a lot of new stuff this week:

The deadline to register to vote is Monday, October 6.

Ballots will be arriving in mailboxes in a few weeks, so...

We've added a new section, Election News and Get Out the Vote \(GOTV\). This is the place for general election and Get Out the Vote news. This is in addition to News from the Campaigns, which contains news about specific events.

Please check out the information in this new section and please share it with your progressive friends, co-workers, neighbors and family.

We also have a new Candidate Profile this week: John Kefalas.

As always, please submit any and all newsletter items to Anne Wilseck anneeliz73@gmail.com and Adam Bowen adambowen@frii.com. The deadline is 5:00 pm Sunday, but early submissions are always appreciated.

From the Chair:

I mentioned this in last week's message but it really bears repeating: our legendary LCDP Get Out The Vote effort will be in full swing as soon as mail ballots are out. We'll need a dedicated crew to work on this, so if you haven't volunteered yet, let us know ASAP!

Call or e-mail Headquarters - 689-6391, or ldems@frii.com.

Fewer than three weeks remain to the Voter Registration deadline - details below. If you know anyone who hasn't registered, get after them!!!

ELECTION NEWS / GOTV

Mon, Oct 6: VOTER REGISTRATION DEADLINE

The deadline to register to vote is approaching quickly. If you have not yet registered to vote or if you need to update your voter registration, the deadline is October 6!

If someone in your household, a friend, a neighbor's 18-year-old is not registered, we will send a trained registrar to get it done!

If you are not sure if you are registered to vote, you can quickly check here:

https://www.co.larimer.co.us/elections/voter_inquiry.cfm

Contact: Larimer County Democratic Party, 970-689-6391, ldems@frii.com

UNDERSTAND HOW LARIMER COUNTY ELECTS COUNTY COMMISSIONERS

The Larimer County Commissioners manage the business affairs of the county which include apportioning and levying taxes, and overseeing the organization and budgeting of all county programs.

Larimer County has three County Commissioners. Each County Commissioners must live within the district he or she is elected from, but all Larimer County Commissioners are elected at-large throughout the county, which means a registered voter within Larimer County votes for Commissioners in all three districts, regardless of where the registered voter lives. In this election, all Larimer County voters are entitled to vote for two commissioner candidates: Roger Hoffmann and Randy Eubanks. This is a general election, not a primary, so the Democratic Candidates are not running against each other; they are running for different seats! Please share this information with your progressive neighbors, family and friends.

Four years ago, another presidential election year, lots of energized voters hit the top of the ticket but didn't vote the entire ballot. This was hurtful on commissioner races then and could be hurtful this year as well.

It is very important to vote in every race on the ballot this year.

IMPORTANT ELECTION LINKS:

Wed, Sep 24: LEAGUE OF WOMEN VOTERS FORUM: Amendment 46

Amendment 46 -- what does it say and what does it mean? If you are as confused as many voters in Colorado are about Amendment 46, there is help on the way. The League of Women Voters of Larimer County is sponsoring an educational public forum to clarify what Amendment 46 actually says and what impact it will have on equal opportunity and diversity programs in Colorado if it should pass. Panelists will discuss where Colorado stands with regard to affirmative action, the language of the amendment proposal and potential impacts on education and employment practices.

Participating panelists are: Lorena Garcia, Lead Organizer, 9 to 5 National Association of Working Women; Melissa Hart, Associate Professor of Law, University of Colorado Law School; and Dana Hiatt, Director of the Office of Equal Opportunity and Diversity at Colorado State University.

Be informed before you vote either for or against Amendment 46. You are cordially invited to the forum, which will provide an excellent opportunity for you to find out what Amendment 46 says and what it means.

Fri, Sep 26: ELEANOR ROOSEVELT: THIS IS MY STORY

Meet first lady Eleanor Roosevelt in 1937, during her husband's second term as president. For almost two decades, Eleanor had worked to advance minimum wage, maximum hours, laws against child labor, women's rights, world peace, and civil rights. She continued to advance her causes while her husband was in office. No other "first lady" had ever taken on such a public role. Furthermore, Eleanor often served as her husband's eyes and ears across the United States by inspecting factories, inner city tenements, and military camps.

Behind this public life is the story of a little girl who lost both parents before the age of ten, a debutante who felt trapped by society's expectations, and a young wife who raised five children before emerging as one of the 20th century's most remarkable women.

Recommended for adults and children ages 9 and up.

Date & Time: Friday, September 26, 7:00 - 8:00 pm

Location: Harmony Branch of the Fort Collins Public Library, 4616 S. Shields, Fort Collins CO

This FREE presentation is sponsored by Colorado Humanities www.ceh.org

For information, contact librarian Norman Fitzpatrick at (970) 204-8206

CANDIDATE PROFILE: JOHN KEFALAS

John Kefalas: Currently serving and running for House District 52

John Kefalas has been involved in local, national and international peace, justice and environmental work for 30 years. He joined the Peace Corps in 1979 as an Agricultural Extension Worker in El Salvador. He visited the northern border of Nicaragua with Witness for Peace, worked in Chiapas, Mexico, with Schools for Chiapas and participated in a delegation to Israel/Palestine with The Compassionate Listening Project.

NEWSLETTER DEADLINES

If you have items to submit, PLEASE READ!

Due to the length of the newsletter, we are limiting the body of most items to 75 words (not including title and “date & time, location, contact” type information). If your submission is longer, it will be cut. We suggest including a link for additional information. Our deadline for newsletter items is Sunday at 5:00 pm for publishing by e-mail on Tuesday mornings. To be effective, send us your notices at least a week early, so that they can appear twice. This will give potential attendees time to put your events on their calendars. We would like to include House District meetings, committee meetings, neighborhood coffees or picnics, etc. Such notices may increase your attendance. Please send newsletter items to anneeliz73@gmail.com and adambowen@frii.com. (Sometimes one of us will be out of town.) Thank you.
